

AVERI GREENE

Marketing Coordinator | Sam's Fans

Bio: Averi Greene is the Marketing Coordinator and the newest member of the Sam's Fans team. Averi grew up outside of Cincinnati, Ohio and attended the University of Denver, graduating in 2019. While in Denver, Averi was fortunate enough to find and explore her passion for entrepreneurship. Averi started and grew two businesses while completing her degree, and fell in love with the processes of building a brand, selling a vision, and growing a business. After graduating, Averi tried out the corporate world but ended up right back where she started, on her own, figuring it out. In February of 2021, Averi started Columbus Creative Copy. CCC is a boutique marketing agency where Averi is able to help businesses that she believes in reach their potential. Through CCC, Averi specializes in digital marketing, content creation, branding and copywriting. Outside of work, Averi loves cooking, traveling, reading a classic thriller novel, and spending time with her boyfriend, Evan, and her Dachshund, George.
